Young Mounties fall 3-0 to Coldwater

Put the biscuit in the basket, light the lamp, fill it up.

Whatever you want to call scoring in soccer, the Northwest High School varsity soccer team needs to learn how to take advantage of scoring opportunities, according to coach Chad Hammond.

Coldwater took advantage of their shots in a 3-0 win over Northwest at on the road May 3. The Mounties fell to 4-3-2 overall, 1-2-1 in the Interstate-8 Conference.

"We need to be able to put the ball away when the possessions are in our favor," Hammond said. "That is the difference.

"They had three beautiful goals and we didn't put the ball in the net."

The Mounties held the ball in their end of the field for most of the first 20 minutes of action, but failed to get the ball past CHS goalie Nadia Kiersey.

Coldwater scored at the 24:37 mark of the first half on a goal by Megan Hoath. The Cardinals scored again just before halftime on a goal by Malorie Rzepka.

Rzepka scored 13 minutes into the second half for a 3-0 Coldwater lead.

The Mounties graduated 11 seniors a year ago.

"We knew this was coming," Hammond said. "There are a lot of freshmen and sophomores on the squad."

Maddie Perrin finished with eight saves for Northwest.

Manchester 3, Clinton 2: Manchester High School took control of the Independent Soccer League eastern division with the win. Delanie Osborne scored two goals and Emma Mrocko tallied 1 for the Flying Dutchmen. Manchester leads the division with 12 points.

Western 3, Charlotte 0: Grace Buckland scored twice and Kristy Bowden once as the Panthers outshot Charlotte 28-2. Annie Tallman recorded her fifth shutout of the season. "The defense played really well and attacked out of the backfield," coach Randi Greenslade said. Western is now 5-3-2 overall, 3-0-1 in the I-8 conference.

Columbia Central 3, Clinton 1: Sophia Stahl scored in the first half to tie the game 1-1. Lindsey Sullivan put the Golden Eagles ahead on an assist by Alissa Fish. Hailey Dickens converted a penalty kick giving the Golden Eagles a 3-1 lead at halftime. Neither team could score in the second half. "Clinton made a strong push to score toward the end of the game, but solid defending and an aggressive mentality from goalkeeper Natalie Tyndall kept them off the board," coach Andy Hosmer said. CCHS outshot the Redskins 17-6. CCHS improves to 4-1 in the ISL eastern division with the win while Clinton falls to 3-2.

ISL scores: Hanover-Horton defeated Quincy 2-1 in a shootout and Springport defeated Jonesville 2-1 May 2. Quincy defeated Jackson Christian 9-3 May 5 in league play.

Dexter 4, Lumen Christi 1: Sara Lefere scored the only goal for Lumen Christi in the non-conference loss. Dexter is 9-0-0 while the Titans fell to 7-4-1.

Jackson Christian 8, Hillsdale 0: Jackson Christian earned their first win of the season in the Independent Soccer League with the win. Audrey McCollum, Jordan Riedel, Sierra Chevalier and Mary Hawthorne scored two goals apiece for JCHS. Bethany Weidman made two saves for Jackson Christian.

Columbia Central 2, Grass Lake 1: Despite outshooting the Warriors 27-1, the Columbia Central High School varsity soccer team had to go to a shootout to win against Grass Lake. "I've been coaching a long time and never seen anything quite like it," CCHS coach Andy Hosmer said of the GLHS goalie. "She was in some sort of zone." Sophia Stahl scored the only goal of the game for CCHS on an assist by Hailey Dickens. Regan Bernstein, Hannah Taylor and Tara Schatzle scored shootout goals. Natalie Tyndall made two saves for CCHS in the shootout.

Marshall 1, Lumen Christi 0: The Titans fell from the ranks of undefeated in the Interstate-8 Conference with the loss. Lumen Christi outshot Marshall 10-7 in the contest. Courtney Melville made five saves for LCCS in the loss.

Blissfield 4, Onsted 0: Blissfield High School scored three times during a 15-minute span in the second half to pull out the win.

Olivia Piepkow of Northwest High School lets a shot fly during a match against Coldwater.

Zeller wins Jackson Stableford Championship

Greg Zeller won the Jackson Stableford Championship Saturday at Ella Sharp Park Golf Course. Rather than counting the total number of strokes taken – as in stroke play – Stableford involves scoring points based on the number of strokes taken at each hole.

Zeller won the 36-hole tournament with 25 points. Mike Brockie was second with 18 and Dave Crandall third with 17.

Zach DeFrain won the first flight with 3 points, Chris Chaney took second with 0 and Todd Marston third with -2 points. Mike Boldt won the second flight with -15 points, Jeremy Fuller was second with -17 and Karl Rullman placed third with -20. In the third flight, Dexter Evans took first at -38, Gary Blanchard was second at -38 and Steve Way won third place with -47.

Gilton wins JCWGA one-day event at CC of J

Virginia Gilton won the Jackson County Women's Golf Association one-day meet at the Country Club of Jackson. Gilton shot an 83 to win low gross by two strokes over Pam Messerly in the championship flight. Deb Webb won low net with a 75 and Peggy Parrott was second with 76.

Laura McCully won low gross in the first flight with a 93 and Suzy Pringle was second with 95. Karen Worthy won low net with a 77 and Karma Sheriff took second with 79. Carol Metz took first place in low gross in the second flight with a 98 and Lila Guenther was second with 101. Jane Dulworth won low net with a 76 and Marlene Mosely was second with 81. Dena Ewing won low gross in the third flight with a 108 and Karlene Rydjord shot a 111 for second. Charlotte Edington won low net with a 78 and Clara Adams was second with 81.

Sandbaggers, May 3 at Hills' Heart 'O the Lakes

Karen Jones and Darlene Lash were the stars of the day. The duo tied for play of the day and low gross with 44s; Lash won low net with 34 and low putts with 15; Lois Khalaf scored a birdie on No. 3 with a chip-in; and Peggy Knox had a chip-in on No. 8

Upcoming tournaments

Entries are being accepted for the 91st City Championship Golf Tournament to be played June 4-11 at the Country Club of Jackson. There will be a 1 p.m. shotgun start June 4 for the qualifying round. The first round of matches will have tee times beginning at noon June 5.

The remainder of the tournament will be played throughout the week leading to the 36-hole final June 11. The tournament is open to Jackson County residents who are amateur golfers with a handicap of 8 or less.

Entry fee is $60 or $25 for high school students. Entry forms are available at the Country Club of Jackson, Arbor Hills, Cascades and Sharp Park pro shops or at www.jacksongolf.net. The entry deadline is 6 p.m. May 30. For more information, contact Dave Gilpin at 517-688-4046.

The Jackson County Women's Golf Association has scheduled a one-day event at Arbor Hills Golf Course in Jackson Friday, June 3. It is an 18-hole reverse shotgun at 8:30 a.m. for $20 including cart per person. Membership into JCWGA can be paid at the meet, if not already paid.

Contact Jan Moor at 517-796-1769 or the sign-up sheet will be available at Jackson Country Club one-day event, Spring Thaw and Lassie Cup or at Cascades Golf Course on Tuesday morning. Deadline for sign up is May 30.

The JCWGA will also host the 14th annual Ladies Spring Thaw Championship Saturday, May 21-22 at Cascades Golf Course. The format is 36 holes stroke play and the field will be flighted based on first-round scores. Tee times begin at 10:30 a.m. and will be available online at www.cascadesgolfcourse.com starting May 19 at 6 p.m. For additional information, contact Andrea Clark at 517-937-3703 or andrea.clark@grass-lakeschools.com.

Baseball

VCL finally wins one-run game

It has been a rough season for first-year Vandercook Lake High School baseball coach Rob Crum.

He has been on the losing end of too many one-run games this season.

Vandercook turned that around with a sweep of Madison 3-2 and 5-3.

The Jayhawks scored all three runs in the third inning of game one and rode the arm of Nick Hamlin for the win. Hamlin struck out 10 batters, walked only three and scattered three hits in the win.

Hamlin also had a hit to knock in a run in the Jayhawks' third inning.

Trent Longbrake had three hits and knocked in a pair of runs for the Jayhawks in game two. Sam Ray and Hamlin had a pair of hits for VCL in the 5-3 win. Devin Cheney earned the pitching win going all seven innings and striking out seven batters.

Western 8-6, Harper Creek 7-6: Jake Farkas had a hit and two RBIs in game one for Western. Steele Fortress earned the pitching win on the mound. Game two was called with each team scoring six runs in seven innings of action. Owen Oliver, Fortress and Evan Zigler had two hits apiece for the Panthers.

St. Philip 13-18, Jackson Christian 0-3: John McNeil had two hits in two games as the Royals were limited to five hits in two games.

Concord 12-12, Reading 4-2: Concord High School swept Reading in Big 8 action.

Blissfield 10-8, Columbia Central 3-3: Bryce Wangler, Noah Osburn and Brett Tyndall had two hits apiece for CCHS in game one. The Golden Eagles outhit Blissfield 12-8, but could not get a big hit. Dylan Gray, Kyle Schiel and Tyndall had two hits apiece for the Golden Eagles in game two.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Rudy Sitarz
May 10, 2007
Bette Midler- The Rose

Some say love, it is a river, that drowns the tender reed
Some say love, it is a razor, that leaves your soul to bleed
Some say love, it is a hunger, an endless aching need
I say love, it is a flower, and you, it's only seed

It's the heart afraid of breaking, that never learns to dance
It's the dream afraid of waking, that never takes the chance
It's the one who won't be taken, who can not seem to give
And the soul afraid of dying, that never learns to live

When the night has been too lonely and the road has been too long
And you think that love is only for the lucky and the strong
Just remember in the winter, far beneathe the bitter snow
Lies the seed, that with the sun's love in the spring becomes the rose.

We love and miss you so very much

CCHS wins two at home tri-meet

Hunter Martin of Columbia Central High School competes in the long jump during a home tri-meet last week.

By Jeff Steers
Exponent editor

The Columbia Central High School boys' track and field team defeated a pair of Lenawee County Athletic Association schools during a home meet May 4.

The Golden Eagles edged Erie Mason 72-64 and defeated Hudson 81-56 to improve to 3-2 in the LCAA. The Golden Eagles are 4-3 overall.

Winners for Columbia Central were: Corey Hamilton in the 100- (16.2) and 300-meter hurdles (44.7); Chase Baumgardner won the 800- (2:28) and 1,600-meter runs (4:56); Hunter Martin, Sean Leppert, Jerimiah Dixon and Connor McLear won the 400-meter relay (46.30); Micah Raby won the 400-meter run (55.90); McLear, Hamilton, Baumgardner and Cooper Gunnells won the 1,600-meter relay (3:49); and Leppert won the discus (117-8).

In the girls' competition, Columbia Central defeated Erie Mason 84-41, but lost to Hudson 85-51. Winners for CCHS were: Nicole Asfour the 100-meter hurdles (17.2); Mackenzi Collins won the 100-meter dash (13.6); Collins, Asfour, Ryleigh Lena and Sara Erickson won the 800-meter relay (2:02); Asfour, Chelsea Palmer, Abigail Randolph and Erickson won the 1,600-meter relay (4:49); and Palmer won the shot put (32-10.5) and the discus (112-9).

Northwest dual meet: The Mounties were double winners as the boys' team defeated Pennfield 123-39 and the girls' team won 87-74. The Mounties won 15-of-17 events in the boys' competition. Multiple individual event winners were Devon Walsh in the 1,600- (5:01) and 3,200-meter runs (11:11) and Trey Hall won the high jump (6-0) and the long jump (17-11). The Mounties won all four relay events. In the girls' competition, Haley Nugent won the high jump (5-0) and the long jump (13-10.5). The Mounties swept the relay events.

Harper Creek dual meet: Jacob Wildenhaus won the 100-meter hurdles (15.57); Casey Carstens won the 300-meter hurdles (45.75); Kyle Booth won the shot put (44-7) for Lumen Christi. In the girls' contests, Megan Schmidt won the 200-meter dash (29.04); Marilyn Schonhard won the 800-meter run (2:24); Amanda Cullin won the 3,200-meter run (12:49); and Shannon Daly won the 100-meter hurdles (18.40) for the Titans.

Western slides past CCHS in non-conference action

Sheldan Williams scattered three hits and did not allow a run helping Western High School earn a 4-0 win at Columbia Central last week.

The Panthers completed the sweep with a 5-4 win in game two.

Williams struck out five batters and earned the shutout with only 73 pitches in game one.

Offensively Jake Farkas and Jared Clark had a pair of hits for Western.

Khol Partridge had two hits for CCHS in game one.

Austen Cooper had two hits and Farkas knocked in two runs for Western in game two. Sam Sharp earned the pitching win for Western and Caleb Thomas and Steele Fortress pitched an inning each in relief.

CCHS was paced by Brett Tyndall and Dylan Gray with four hits apiece.

Onsted 8-10, Hillsdale 1-0: Scott Lobbestael had three hits and Pat Iott hit a home run in game one. Josh Tirey and Landon Duke had two hits apiece in game one. Lobbestael pitched a perfect game for Onsted in game two. He struck out six batters, and did not give up a hit or walk. He was also 3-for-4 at the plate with two RBIs. Isaac Henry had two hits and knocked in two runs for Onsted.

Jackson 7-0, Marshall 6-5: Jackson scored seven times in the last three innings to pull out the non-conference win. Nick Lillrose held Jackson to two hits in game two for Marshall.

North Adams-Jerome 27-10, Jackson Christian 6-6: The Rams scored 14 times in the first two innings of game one and tacked on 13 more in the third. Mitchell McNeil had three RBIs for Jackson Christian in game one and Caleb Thomas knocked in three runs in game two.

Homer 22-19, Manchester 0-0: Nic Tindall had two hits for Manchester in game one.

Lumen Christi 9-4, Coldwater 8-7: John Fleming hit a game-winning home run in the seventh inning. He finished the game with three hits and three RBIs. Connor Mogle had a pair of hits and also knocked in three runs for the Titans in game one. Zach Mehelich had three hits in game two for Lumen Christi.

Northwest 7-18, Pennfield 1-7: Logan Everett hit a home run and knocked in three runs in game one. Logan Young also had a pair of hits for the Mounties in game one. Bryce Buchler hit a home run and Greg Fredrickson knocked in four runs with two hits in game two. Everett had two more hits for Northwest.

Tennis

Titans defeat Western in girls' tennis

The Lumen Christi Catholic School varsity tennis team defeated Western 6-2 at WHS in a key Interstate-8 Conference match.

The Titans won three of the four singles' competitions as Taylor Smith defeated Ceily Doan 6-0, 6-1 in No. 1 singles; Shannon McDonnell won 6-1, 6-1 against Madelyn Polich at No. 2 singles; Melany Rochester earned a win at No. 3 singles against Ryleigh Cottingham 6-2, 6-2.

Western singles player Kelsi Inman defeated Nina Dunigan 7-5 and 6-3 at No. 4 singles.

Lauren Reynolds/Sela Clifford of Lumen Christi defeated Victoria Buchholz/Lauren Luplow of Western 7-5, 7-6(4) at No. 1 doubles; Jocee McEldowney/Geraldine Berkemeier won 6-7(3), 6-4 and 6-2 against Meredith Luplow/Sierra Griffith at No. 2 doubles; Josie Gibson/Madison King of LCCS defeated Corrinne Doll/Carmen Ortega 6-4, 6-4 at No. 3 doubles; and Karissa Huss/Crisilee DeBacker of Western defeated Megan Fors/Natahlia Grinenko of Lumen Christi 6-2, 6-7(7) and 7-5 at No. 4 doubles.

Columbia Central 5, Hillsdale 3: The Golden Eagles won 3-of-4 singles' matches as Hayley Diefenthaler won 6-1, 6-2 at No. 2 singles; Maddie Tamlyn won 6-4, 6-1 at No. 3 singles; and Jessica Burke won 7-5, 6-3 at No. 4 singles.
